WHAT MAKES US THE RIGHT TEAM FOR YOUR ORGANIZATION?

We are made up of well trained, passionate about human development team with more than 13 years experience, rendering indoors and outdoors programs including motivational seminars. There's no question about it, our programs are FUN! Regardless of the size of your group, we will facilitate creative team activities that are guaranteed laughter, challenge, fun and inspiration. Hence not forgetting the purpose of the program. The medium of learning has an ability to solve a number of issues that cannot be completely addressed in a formal setting. Activities, discussions, power point presentations, training and games are seamlessly blended together to make your session an effective catalyst for change. So we believe without a doubt that we can increase the level of team work for your organization, improve leadership skills and increase the speed of project completion.

Let us help you identify your team's strength & challenges and co-create action plans to build a happy, high-performing team.

TEAM BUILDING

By the end of high Performance Team session, the tables will be covered with post-it notes, great solutions and participants will leave with both powerful skills and real ideas that will help your team to consistently solve the challenges they are facing in their unique education contexts. Our programs are inspiring, FUN and practical.

Our Team Effective Profile, Team Roles and Team Player Survey will help your team identify the style of another member of the team, Help your staff increase effectiveness as a player, Know what makes your team tick, Team work phases and more.

REVIEWS

"I would like to thank Fred and his team in facilitating a team building for our employees. It was such a great experience for everyone and we definitely went back to work as a stronger team. The activities were fun and got everyone working together towards a common goal. I would recommend him for any team building activities. Thank you once again Fred"

- Precious, Otobox -

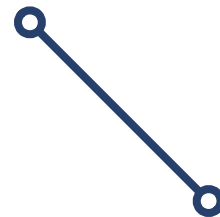

"Thank you to the services of Mr Bohasu. The motivation was based on creativity, hardworking and they should never lose hope that there is no job. You spent more than four hours motivating and encouraging our students to participate. You even explained to them how to associate with great people that they must always humble themselves and show respect to everybody."

- Kgomotso Matsomela, Tshwane University of Technology-

"I would like to confirm that Fred Bohasu has been a great partner in the course that I offer to New York University students for the past 6 years. His presentations have always been well prepared and structured and the feedback from students has been very positive. I am referring to graduate students at Masters and Doctoral level studying for a course offered in South Africa every July."

- Teboho Moja, Professor and Director, Higher Education Program, New York University-

Fred and the Impact Team are the go-to on Team Building, Motivation and Capacity Building. Have always been inspired working with the team.

-Milton Kamwendo - Director Innov8, Zimbabwe-
